SAIL-AWAY MEET UP

We will meet in the Oceanview Bar on Resort Deck at the aft end of the ship immediately after the muster/lifeboat drill in Cape Liberty. Plan on meeting everyone for the first time on board.

Here is a deck map that shows you where to meet.

Meet here for the SailAway Get Together immediately after the muster drill!

CRUISE-CONNECTIONS PARTY

Cruise Connections Party–You must register before we sail! If you get to your cabin and you don't find an invitation make sure and ask other Roll Call members at the Sail-Away get together to find out the time and location. You can also call Guest Relations.

As of the last time I checked before today we had well over 100 people registered so we will undoubtedly have a Connections Party and although there is NO WAY to predict pre-cruise when or where it will be, the likelihood that it will be on Monday, October 8 in the morning in a fairly large venue, historically that would be the Revelations Lounge on the Sunrise Deck .

GAME TIME!

Here's the list of who wants to play what game. If you want to play, call someone on the list. Their cabin numbers are here and will be in the PDF you will receive prior to the cruise.

SLOT PULL

For all you folks who have signed up to participate in the Slot Pull...here's what you need to know.

Since our group is very large, we have made some adjustments to the way the Slot Pull will run. In the event of a "BIG" win, we don't want to run into a taxation issue...

Therefore, we have decided to pull the machine in 3 groups of 20 people each. The pull order will remain the same as it has been...in order of sign - up. Group 1 will put $300 ($15 x 20 people) into the machine. All 20 will have their turn at the machine and then we will "cash out" of the machine and keep the money in an envelope. Then Groups 2 and 3 will do the same. Once Group 3 is finished, all the money that was "cashed out" by each group will be combined into one pot and divided equally among all 60 players.

We will be collecting the money ($15 per per player) and having all players check in at the Cruise Connections Meet and Mingle. For those folks not attending the Cruise Connections Meet and Mingle, we ask you to meet us at the Martini Bar by the Fortunes Casino to sign in and pay. Once we are informed of the Cruise Connections Meet and Mingle start time, we will plan to be at the casino about 1 hour later.

LAST SEA DAY LUNCH IN THE MDR

You are cordially invited to join us on the last sea day (August 18) at lunch at 12:30 pm local time in MDR. I will arrange it with the maitre'd or his/her assistant. I would love to know pre-cruise who would be interested in joining us. Or you can tell me at the sail-away or Celebrity Connections Party. On past cruises we have had as many as 60 attend. I just need an approximate number to go to X with..

This lunch is just lunch. No cost involved. I'll buy! But we have always been able to get our own section of the MDR with a couple of dedicated waiters and it has been great. We talk about the things we have liked or disliked about the cruise and just have fun.

PS: If by then you think you will be Cruise Criticed out by then, don't sweat it. Even if the seven in our party meet for lunch, we will have a great time.

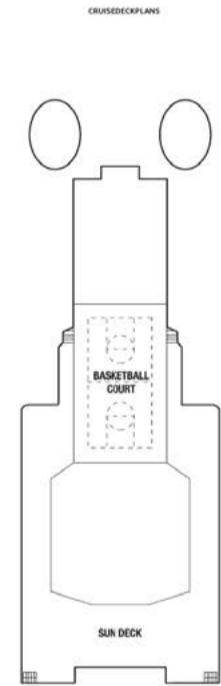

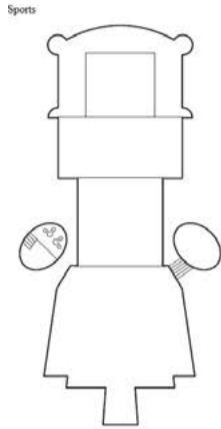

Here are the participants thus far:

1. Jim & Kathleen (DrKoob & Bellkat)

Holly & I are in our early 50s. Holly is a Budget Analyst for the Department of Defense (33 years) & I'm a Navy Air Traffic Controller (34 years). I meet precious few other Sailors who pay to go on cruises J. We met when she was a volunteer at the USO.

We firmly believe that exploration of other cultures is fatal to small-mindedness (Mark Twain, 'The Innocents Abroad', 1867).

My second passion is independent filmmaking. I take a fair amount of gear on our trips (I don't let tech get in the way of fun) to document travel & blog, taking about 2 months to turn that media into a film. Ask me anything about pre/post production- I'm happy to assist.

Holly's other passions include cooking & photography. She takes most of our close-up shots (& quite well).

This will be our 4th Celebrity cruise, first time on Summit and 17th overall cruise (includes 3 European river cruises). Will probably visit our cousins in Staten Island prior to the cruise. We love to travel, with the exception of flying. Global Entry/TSA Pre-Check has proved worthless for us.

Our joy comes from meeting so our fellow cruisers and seeing new places - like Quebec. My hubby is retired from State of NM Environment Dept; I do weekly newsletters for a TV/radio sales coach; 1 for US distribution; another for Canada. No kids. Looking forward to this cruise.

About 120 cruises on various cruise lines (Ocean and River). Spending kids inheritances -- one cruise at a time. Beyond cruising our next favorite "money-pit" is wine enjoyment.

We grew up (sort of) in Philadelphia, and have been living in NH for almost 18 years now. Both retired -- Janet from Nursing, and Ray from Human Resources Mgmt. We love living in a small rural town, rather than a large city - another "plus" from retirement.

Pre/Post cruise -- "Pre" we will drive to area the day prior and find a hotel with reasonable parking costs, or park at the cruise terminal garage. "Post" we plan to retrieve our vehicle and drive home, should be about 4 hours on a Sunday (late morning/mid afternoon).

Looking forward to meeting everyone.

We are both retired, love traveling and meeting new fellow adventurers. Sharon is an avid photographer, nature lover and hiker, dabbles in writing and enjoys volunteering. Ray enjoys videoing our adventures and sharing our travel stories.

Our pre and post plans are not finalized, but we plan to enjoy New York City (a fav), a play or two, a walk through Central Park, etc. Sharon will try to squeeze in a visit to B&H Photo.

Post cruise, we are considering renting a car, and doing a leisure drive through the east coast, to Pittsburgh, where we both grew up Steel Mill brats, Sharon in the country, Ray in small town USA. Both still have family and childhood friends in the area.

I am Eileen, a retired Los Angeles Unified School teacher. My husband, Bob, is a retired Los Angeles County Coroner Investigator. We have two adult children that work and live close by. I love to walk in a nature center near home, play tennis three/four times a week, enjoy lunches, movies and cooking classes with friends, and most of all love not rushing out at 6:15 AM to get to work. Bob is an avid bike rider and likes to take his 'training rides' several times a week with his big one on Saturday morning lasting most of the day. We have no idea about pre cruise, but will fly home directly post cruise. We've been on 13 cruises, mostly Royal Caribbean before we moved over to Celebrity for the last four.

We have one son, one daughter and 4 grandchildren (3 boys and 1 girl). We are hoping our friends in Vancouver will join us on this cruise and they are Celebrity regulars. Thinking of doing a pre-cruise NYC visit for few days and coming home right after the cruise.

Since retiring and getting two new knees, I have been golfing and traveling. I love to plan and organize private excursions. Looking forward to meeting all new friends on The Summit cruise.

We first cruised on our 25th wedding in 2009 & became hooked on cruising. We have loved all of our cruises but 2 favourites would be British Isles and Baltic, but then again we loved the Middle East & Israel, & Med & NZ.....oh well, all of them are our favourites.

Our daughter is a ballet teacher, married to an English guy and our son (when not working with us) surfs around the world. His girlfriend lives in LA.

Can't wait to meet you all on board. Mark and Julie Hall will be cruising with us.

This is our second New England cruise so many of the ports are repeats for us---BUT we are hoping for much less rain and cold weather than the last time! I do enjoy trivia on the ships and Larry loved the indoor pools and spa areas...we both have different ideas of what is relaxing... We travel all cruise lines, but love the M Class of Celebrity...this will be our second Summit sailing.

Sine we live on Long Island, we'll be driving from home to the port on the day we sail.....then coming back home the day we return. No flying for us this time.....love that!!!!

We both love gardening, golfing, hiking, dinner groups, etc. I enjoy playing Bridge. . . my husband still plays Tennis. We are well up in years however still basically healthy and very active.

We have not planned many excursions at the Canadian ports since we have travelled and vacationed extensively in our own country (and also in the U.S. of A.) We are however hoping to do check out Boston, Portland and Bar Harbor.

Thank you for all your efforts Jim . . and also the 'other kind souls' in arranging for this gathering. You are very much appreciated.

I also love taking photos and got some great scenery shots last time we were on a similar itinerary.

George and I are looking forward to this cruise. We travel quite a bit, but not cruising. We have been on all 7 continents.

We did do a cruise to Alaska on a small ship that only had 300 people. In 2015 we went to Antarctica on a Russian Research ship that only had 90 people. In order to go onto the islands with the penguins, you can only have 100 people. We also went kayaking everyday which was incredible with all the icebergs.

I enjoy traveling and doing photography.

OUR MAP

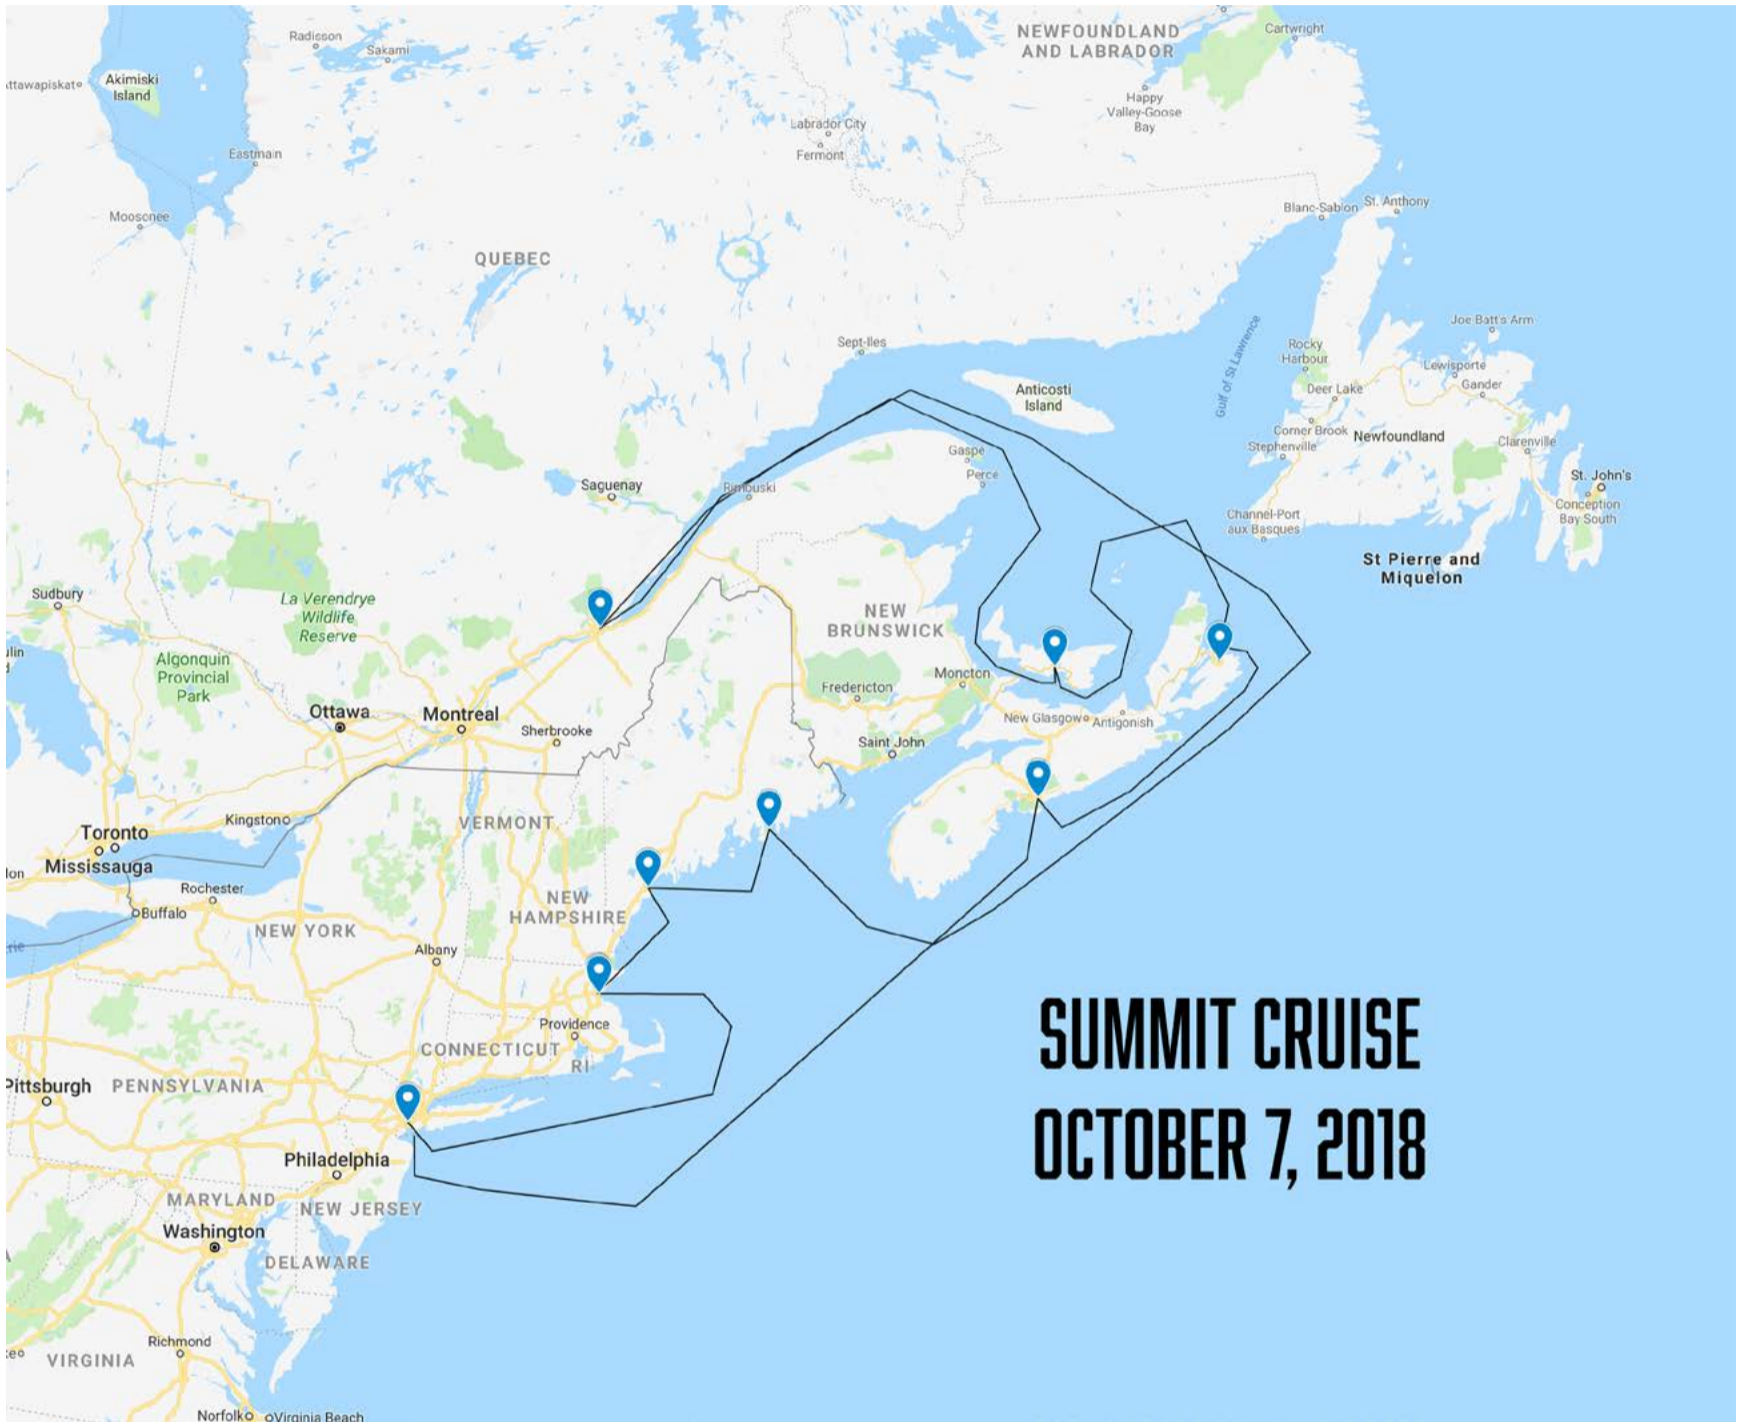

As long as I can remember I have loved maps and once Google Maps came along I made good use of them. Here's a map of where we all live (as of 9-21/18). I did not include any of the people who did not give me an exact city name or anyone who does not post on Cruise Critic. If you have an Internet connection, you can click the map below to go to the actual Google map. This map is not the actual map. The text will not scroll. To do that, you need to be online and click the map to see the actual map on Google Maps. The map below is just a big button.
